

DISNEY TELEVISION ANIMATION

500 South Buena Vista Street, Burbank, CA 91521-4560

Contact: Hope Diamond
818 973 4079

Disney Television Animation Fact Sheet

Disney Television Animation (DTA), an animation studio established in December 1984, is an industry leader in the creation of animated television product for preschoolers, kids and tweens. The studio brings programming and production expertise together under the same leadership as Disney Channels Worldwide.

Distribution:

Series produced by DTA air seven days a week on both cable and broadcast outlets and new media platforms around the world, including Disney Channel, the upcoming Disney XD, ABC Kids on the ABC Television Network, Jetix, SVOD and VOD.

Current Productions:

DTA has as many as a dozen series currently in production and more than 50 series in various stages of development for Disney Channels Worldwide. The studios' most recent success, "Phineas and Ferb," was the No. 1 animated series among Kids 6-11 and Tweens 9-14 in 2009. Other projects for Disney Channel, Disney XD and Playhouse Disney include "Kick Buttowski – Suburban Daredevil," "Mickey Mouse Clubhouse," "My Friends Tigger & Pooh" and "Special Agent Oso."